

ICA Masterclass Series

June 2024

London

In today's interconnected business world, organisations face a range of challenges when navigating regulatory landscapes, managing technology-driven fraud risks and upholding ethical standards.

ICA's London Masterclass Series is your gateway to advanced knowledge and capabilities in financial crime compliance, tailored to give board members and senior management the insights and tools to thrive.

Workshop approach

Our interactive masterclasses are designed to empower professionals with cutting-edge knowledge and insights in three pivotal areas: anti-bribery and corruption (ABC); fraud; and environmental, social and governance (ESG).

Join us for interactive group discussions, hands-on exercises and immersive problem-solving experiences focused on real-world economic compliance scenarios.

- The Masterclass Series is designed and developed by industry experts.
- Attendees work on real-life management and financial compliance challenges, and receive valuable feedback.
- Each session concludes with an interactive Q&A.

Who should attend?

The Masterclass Series is suitable for senior compliance or financial crime professionals.
